

The Global Gecko Association

"The GGA exists to increase our interest in, and awareness of, geckos by providing the means for the dissemination of knowledge. The GGA believes that by communicating and sharing our experiences of geckos we can better understand, appreciate, conserve and care for these wonderful creatures."

What is the GGA?

The Global Gecko Association is a international nonprofit organization dedicated to the needs and aspirations of all people interested in geckos. The benefits of membership are great:

- "GEKKO", the twice a membership year color Journal of the GGA, contains articles from many of the leading figures in the gecko world.
- "Chit-Chat", the members' Newsletter, contains GGA News, literature reviews, veterinary advice, Questions and Answers, a regular Gecko Care Sheet produced by an acknowledged species expert, members' classified ads and much more. It is dispatched four times a membership year.
- "Bibliogek", the GGA Members Only Book Club, will make available a large array of Gecko publications at special discounted prices.
- www.gekkota.com the official GGA website, features an active listserv, where you can ask questions and share in discussions with gecko enthusiasts of all levels of experience; an on line classifieds page, listing breeders offering captive bred geckos; a species reference page featuring photographs of many rare and beautiful geckos; information about the GGA, news of GGA events, gecko links, care sheets—in fact a haven for gecko fans!
